

SPEAKERS

Holly Catterton Allen is professor of family studies and Christian ministries at Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Allen teaches courses in early childhood development and family ministry, and she has previously taught at John Brown University, Biola University and Abilene Christian University. Dr. Allen's areas of research are children's spirituality and intergenerational issues. She is the coauthor of Intergenerational Christian Formation: Bringing the Whole Church Together in Ministry, Community and Worship and the editor of Nurturing Children's Spirituality: Christian Perspectives and Best Practices. At the Teach 2016 conference, she will be the special guest of Nazarene Theological Seminary (NTS) and will present the Laytham Lecture in Early Childhood Ministry. Her presentations include Pilgrims Together: Building an Intergenerational Faith Community and Bringing the Generations Back Together: Nurturing Spiritual Formation across All Ages. Dr. Allen is married to Dr. Leonard Allen, and they have three adult children as well as four grandchildren.

Dan Boone was called to preach at the age of 12. As a teen he pastored the New Salem Church of the Nazarene. He attended Trevecca Nazarene University and later earned a Master of Divinity degree at Nazarene Theological Seminary. Dr. Boone earned his Doctor of Ministry from McCormick Theological Seminary. He has served as the senior pastor of a number of churches, including Trevecca Community Church of the Nazarene in Nashville, Tennessee, and College Church of the Nazarene in Bourbonnais, Illinois. A popular author and impactful speaker, Dr. Boone currently serves as president of Trevecca Nazarene University. He and his wife of 40 years, Denise, have three adult daughters and six grandchildren.

David W. Graves was elected as a general superintendent in the Church of the Nazarene at the 27th General Assembly in 2009. At the time of his election, Dr. Graves was the senior pastor of College Church of the Nazarene in Olathe, Kansas. Dr. Graves served as director of Sunday School Ministries for the Church of the Nazarene International Headquarters from 2001 to 2006. He has had pastoral assignments in Kansas, Ohio, Tennessee, Oklahoma, and North Carolina. Graves is a graduate of Olivet Nazarene University and Nazarene Theological Seminary. Known as an excellent communicator, Dr. Graves has traveled the globe, authored three books, and has written for numerous publications. Dr. Graves is a 4th generation Nazarene on both sides of his family. He and his wife, Sharon, have four adult children and 10 grandchildren.

Albert Hung is the Lead Pastor at Trinity Church of the Nazarene in Monterey Park, California, a multi-cultural, multi-site church with services in English, Spanish, and Mandarin. After spending several years in the entertainment business as a stage director, composer, and television host, Albert came to faith in Christ in 2000 while living overseas in Taiwan. Soon afterward, he felt a call to pastoral ministry and moved to Los Angeles, where he served as the International Chaplain at Azusa Pacific University before accepting his current role at Trinity Church. He is passionate about cross-cultural ministry, leadership development, and mobilizing Christians to use their gifts and abilities to advance the kingdom of God in their local community.

WORSHIP LEADER

Scott Kelley is the worship arts pastor at Springdale Nazarene Church in Cincinnati, Ohio. It is our privilege to have him as our worship leader at TEACH 2016. Kelly's worship leadership and ministry talents are well known and have led to the invitation to lead worship at the 2017 General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene in Indianapolis, Indiana.