

Dr. Susan Carole

Dr. Susan Carole's ministry focus is holiness evangelism and discipleship. She preaches in revival services and leads holiness seminars for local and district groups as well as college students. She explains her ministry passion in these words:

"The holiness message expresses God's astounding offer of redemptive fellowship through Jesus Christ. I can think of no higher happiness to which we can aspire, than to live in fullest fellowship with God; nor can I think of a better answer to the pervasive restlessness, loneliness and anxiety to which persons in all walks of society are susceptible. I am convinced that fellowship with God, which begins at the new birth and obtains fullness in entire sanctification, is healing and hope to all humanity. I am grateful for the charge laid upon me to preach so great a salvation."

Susan's recent publication, Called into Communion (2013), is a relevant and insightful exposition of the holiness message. She is adjunct professor of theology at Nazarene Theological Seminary, adjunct professor of Christian Formation at Wesley Theological Seminary, and certified theology instructor in the Nazarene Bible College Alliance Curriculum. She is the francophone representative on the Global Ministries Women's Council. She holds degrees in theology and education— Th.B. (Caribbean Nazarene College), M.A. (Education, University of Kansas), M.A. (Theology, University of Toronto), and Ph.D. (Systematic Theology, Calvin Theological Seminary). An ordained elder in the Church of the Nazarene (2006), she has been in ministry over two decades in the Caribbean, West Africa, Canada and the United States. She and her husband, Georges serve on the Michigan District. They have one daughter and two sons.
