II. Lecture

Notes

The small group of choice for most churches is still Sunday School. This ministry has continued in one form or another since the 1770's. While some devalue this old tradition, there are others who take advantage of the strengths Sunday School presents. Sunday School provides a steady diet of Bible study, is more evangelistic than most leaders think and offers fellowship and acceptance into the life of the congregation.

As with any ministry, Sunday School needs to be refreshed. New approaches can make their way into how Christian education happens in the local congregation. Revitalizing Sunday School suggests a few modifications to improve and to strengthen ministry in the local church.

The church needs Sunday School to:

1. PROVIDE pastoral care
 - 1/4 to 1/2 of the Sunday School class time should be spent CARING (praying, sharing, fellowshiping) for each other.
2. OPEN evangelistic opportunities
 - Sunday School draws the attention of Christians toward the world.
 - Sunday School is itself an evangelistic ministry; it gives people a chance to accept Christ. It reaches out to people through caring relationships, and it incorporates them into comfortable settings where the Bible is taught and Christian care is offered.
3. ENHANCE fellowship and acceptance
 - Sunday School places the emphasis on PEOPLE.
 - Small group settings permit us to become involved in the lives of a particular individual. Sunday School provides a natural social GROUPING by age and interest.
 - Sunday School gives a place for people to SERVE. In addition to the leadership tasks of the Sunday School, there needs to be a variety of meaningful tasks in each class through which individuals can minister (outreach leader, fellowship leader, secretary, prayer leader, care group leader, etc).

4. TRAIN people to serve
 - A primary purpose is to GRADUATE people out of adult classes into ministry. As new classes are formed, some of the leaders who have been part of a healthy, growing class become the core for the new class.
5. PROVIDE an organizational framework and administrative supervision.
 - The Sunday School gives all the organization needed for most churches. It is the basic structure for reaching, teaching, and leadership development. The church grows by expanding the Sunday School.
6. Enable leaders to FOCUS on tasks to be accomplished
 - When there is a clearly defined approach to accomplishing the mission of the church, more energy is applied.
7. TIE pastor and laity together by a mutual mission
8. TEACH people God's Word.
9. ACCESS people's needs, thoughts and visions
 - The small group (class) setting, coupled with the Sunday School structure, permits an effective flow of information up and down throughout the entire church.

Jesus instructed His followers to MAKE disciples. Let's review how Jesus said we are to make disciples:

1. By INITIATING contact with the world
 - a. Jesus told his followers to become ASSERTIVE.
 - i. Go into all the world. (Matt. 25:19)
 - ii. If you greet those who greet you, what have you done more than the pagans? (Matt. 5:47)
 - b. Sunday School attempts to REACH unchurched people.
 - i. TEACH the biblical directive to minister. Our motivation for reaching out to the unchurched is rooted in scripture.
 - ii. PRAY often for unreached people.
 - iii. Plan events that will entice the unchurched to RESPOND.

II. Lecture (cont.)

2. By INCLUDING

- a. Jesus taught His disciples to BAPTIZE people.
 - i. Baptism symbolizes ACCEPTANCE into church fellowship.
 - ii. By participating in the ceremony of baptism, the new Christian is IDENTIFIED with believers.
 - iii. Church people WELCOME new believers into friendship.
 - iv. An alive church ATTRACTS people.
- ii. Sunday School ACCEPTS new people into the friendship circle.
 - i. While membership requires spiritual growth, ANYONE can belong to the Sunday School.
 - ii. INCLUDE prospects on the responsibility list. Develop a plan to contact prospects in some kind of intentional way.
 - iii. ASK people if they would like to become a part of a Bible study. People today want to study the Bible as a guide for living, but most have never been invited to become part of a Bible study group.
 - iv. ENROLL them if they give a positive response.

3. By INSTRUCTING

- a. Jesus commanded us to TEACH people.
 - i. The Great Commission is both an evangelistic and EDUCATIONAL directive.
 - ii. We are never to separate evangelism from EDUCATION. To do so is to change the nature of each.
 - iii. Evangelism is an educational task. A knowledge base is necessary for responsiveness.
 - iv. DISCIPLES are made through an educational process.
- b. Sunday School ADDRESSES people's need to become Christ-like.

- iii. Teaching ALTERS the values people hold.
- iv. Teaching TRANSFORMS thinking patterns.

Summarize the lecture with the following points:

1. The Sunday School is to FOCUS on the Great Commission.
2. We make disciples by inviting, including, and INSTRUCTING people.

III. Small Group Exercise

(15 Minutes)

The small group exercise portion of the module provides an opportunity for the teams to discuss the information presented and how it applies to their church.

Turn to the Small Group Exercise portion of your participant booklet. Work with the team members from your church to complete the questions. You will have 15 minutes to complete the questions.

Remain available during the exercise time to answer questions. Announce to the group when five minutes remain. Again announce to the group when two minutes remain.

IV. Discussion

(5 Minutes)

The discussion portion of the module provides an opportunity for people to share their thoughts about the purpose and importance of Sunday School.

- If you're ahead of schedule, the discussion can go a few extra minutes. However, it's easy to lose track of time so watch the clock.

Call the group back together and open the floor for discussion. If the group is hesitant to discuss, start with one of the questions they discussed during the exercise.

The questions were:

1. How do we presently seek to reach people?
2. What other methods might be effective?
3. How do we initially greet and treat newcomers?
4. How do we help people feel accepted, needed and wanted?
5. How relevant are the teaching/learning experiences in your Sunday School classes?
6. Where do you presently see the focus of Sunday School lessons?
Mark an 'X' on the continuum.

Content-centered

Life-changing

7. How do people best learn? Hearing, seeing or doing?
8. Where might these learning experiences be multiplied? Who might benefit from knowing this information?

V. Action Planning/Reporting

(20 Minutes)

This section gives the participants an opportunity to discuss their plans for using this information when they return to their churches, as well as how they will share the information with others.

The homework assignment for this module is:

Complete the following Class/Group Leadership Team assessment for each youth/adult Sunday School class. Work with the Sunday School teachers and the classes' leadership teams to recruit class members for the available positions. Focus on recruiting for the Outreach Leader and Care Leader positions first.

Let's take about 20 minutes to discuss how you will begin impacting your Sunday School when you return to your church. In your material you have an Action Planning/Reporting page with your homework assignment. In your teams discuss and document how you will complete this assignment. You will probably need to continue this discussion when you return home.

Move among the groups to answer specific questions. Listen for discussions that are not focused on developing a plan and guide them into developing a plan. Let the groups know when there are five minutes remaining and ask them to begin to conclude their discussions.

VI. Module Wrap-up

(5 Minutes)

This section provides an opportunity to close the module.

Ask participants to share their thoughts about the module.
Answer any questions and provide encouragement.
