

Joy to the World?
by Larry Morris

A stressed out mother was Christmas shopping with a couple of excited and hyperactive children. Tired from the hours of struggling with the holiday crowds and keeping her children from pulling toys from overstuffed shelves, she squeezed her way into an already-crowded department store elevator.

As the elevator door closed, in an exasperated voice she said, "Whoever started this Christmas thing should be strung up and shot."

[\[Read more...\]](#)

John Wesley: Barefoot
Sunday School Teacher
by Larry R. Morris

Livin' the Good Life
by Bob Broadbooks

God Comes to Us in Our Shame
by John Comstock

Nazarene Camping
Association
Annual Report

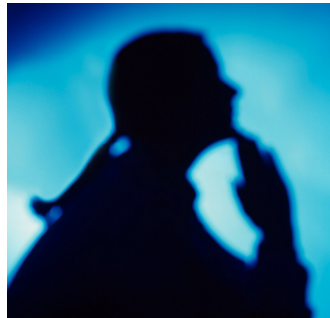

Children's Bible

Christmas Traditions: Old and New
by Douglas Downs

Quizzing: Trinidad &
Tobago
by Leslie Hart

The Changing Face of PrimeTime Ministries
by Wm Marshall Duke

Keeping Your Faith
When the Angel
Doesn't Come
by Beula Postlewait

Christmas Memories...
(Variety of Contributors)

Contact us at sdmi@nazarene.org
Copyright Church of the Nazarene, Inc.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

MailChimp