FROM THE EDITOR

The Church of the Nazarene is blessed with many very talented people who work extremely hard to keep facts, figures, and information about evangelists. Stan Ingersol has been the Nazarene Archives manager since 1985. I asked him to help me gather some information about the history of evangelists and evangelism in our church. After I received Stan's findings, I was blessed to learn that I personally have known each of the godly men in his list.

Since I am presently the Revivalism Coordinator I was very interested in how we as a church came to this particular designation. I have been in the Church of the Nazarene ever since the day my mother tripped on the stairs leading down to the nursery in the old Hammond, Indiana First Church and deposited me on the basement floor. My first pastor was Ted Martin, the brother of Evangelist Paul Martin. Very early in my childhood I heard the news that we were an evangelistic church born in the fires of revival.

The first Executive Secretary of the Department of Evangelism was Dr. V.H. Lewis in 1956. I remember meeting him as a young evangelist some years later when he was a General Superintendent. We were in the pastor's study getting ready for the service when he stared at me and said, "You're on my list." I wasn't really sure what that meant at the time, for he did not smile when he said it. I soon learned he was a great encourager and friend to all evangelists.

Dr. Edward Lawlor became Secretary from 1960 – 1968. These were my teen years and I had received my call to be an evangelist. As many of you know, Dr. Lawlor had a powerful presence and preaching style. I remember sitting with my friend John Seaman in a revival meeting in the Chicago Emerald Avenue Church mesmerized by his delivery and challenged by his sermon.

Dr. John L. Knight was very clear in his preaching. He said, "When you are filled with the Holy Spirit, you are sanctified wholly. When you are sanctified wholly you are filled with the Holy Spirit." After he had repeated that several times, I was convinced that preaching holiness and preaching the Spirit filled life were to be indispensable truths preached in every revival meeting.

Dr. Don Gibson was a dear personal friend and godly soul winner. Before he became Secretary of Evangelism he had an occasion to drive my first Corvette in St. Louis, MO. It was a 1963 fuel-injected 365HP convertible. I thought it was the perfect car for a single holiness evangelist to drive. NOT! Dr. Gibson instituted the "Evangelists' Gathering" for evangelists and song evangelists to get together at the end of each year for fellowship and inspiration. This "Gathering" has continued to the present but is now called, "The Evangelists' Homecoming Camp Meeting." We no longer fight the bad winter weather but meet Labor Day weekend at Indian Lake Nazarene Camp Ground in Vicksburg, MI.

Dr. Bill Sullivan straddled the transition from the title, "Executive Secretary of the Department of Evangelism" to "Evangelism Ministries Director." Dr. Sullivan gave great leadership to this new assignment for the years of 1981-1988 and again later from 1992-2000. In 1988 Dr. M.V. "Bud" Scutt became Evangelism Ministries Director. Dr. Scutt had served as an evangelist and song evangelist in many revivals and brought a hands-on insight as to what it takes to be an itinerant evangelist. He served the directorship with distinction and enthusiasm but accepted a call to become District Superintendent of the Southwest Indiana District in 1992.

Once again Dr. Bill Sullivan accepted the call to assume the Evangelism Ministries Directorship role for the years of 1992 – 2000. Dr. Sullivan had the vision of someday having a full-time evangelist become a liaison between those engaged in itinerant evangelism and Evangelism Ministries. Also, by General Assembly action, a committee called, "The Committee on the Interests of the God-called Evangelist" was formed. Dr. Stephen Manley was chosen by Dr. Sullivan to see if the concept of having a full-time evangelist acting as this liaison would be a workable one. Eventually this trial run would develop into what would become the position of Revivalism Coordinator.

In his report to the General Board in 2001, Dr. Sullivan explained that Evangelism Ministries would be merging into Multicultural Ministries and the two would be re-named Mission Strategy. Revivalism Ministries would be incorporated with Pastoral Ministries in the Office of the Ministry. With this new restructuring it was necessary to create the position of Revivalism Coordinator. And this position would be filled by a full-time, tenured evangelist.

In 1993 Dr. Nelson Perdue was appointed the first Revivalism Coordinator. Dr. Perdue's leadership is responsible for several innovations in Revivalism Ministries. The Evangelists' Perspective Magazine was launched in the summer of 1999. Six VHS video tapes of Nazarene evangelists and song evangelists were professionally recorded and produced for the public. Nelson Perdue, Louis Bustle, and Tom Hermiz envisioned the Holiness Summits concept. These Holiness Summits have been conducted in churches throughout the nation and on several of our college campuses. With all these projects going and at the same time maintaining a full slate of revival and camp invitations, Dr. Perdue passed the baton to Dr. Chuck Millhuff in 2002.

Probably no other preacher's name in recent history would be associated with Nazarene revivalism more than that of Chuck Millhuff. Chuck was commissioned as a Nazarene evangelist in 1961 and ordained an elder in 1962 by Dr. Hardy Powers. In 1965 he was approached by The Billy Graham Association to become a youth evangelist for the association but declined in order to be free to preach "second blessing holiness." He has spoken in some of the largest venues in America. He has appeared on "The Old Time Gospel Hour" and several of the Gaither Home Coming videos. Most important however, as with Dr. Manley and Dr. Perdue, he knows the demands and responsibilities of itinerant evangelism.

It was my privilege to serve as a tenured evangelist under the leadership of these godly men. In 2009, Chuck reached the age prescribed by the Manual for retirement. I was honored by the invitation to assume the role of Revivalism Coordinator. I am extremely blessed to have the full support and encouragement of those who have walked this road before me. These past four years have seen several men and women receiving the "tenured evangelist" credential. If the Lord tarries, I know He will provide the next Revivalism Coordinator for the Church of the Nazarene. ★ went to be with the Lord April 10, 2013. First and foremost, Rev. Fader was a faithful soldier of the cross. He and his wife, Mary travelled the nation preaching and singing the Gospel as evangelists and song evangelists in the Church of the Nazarene. Secondly, Wesley Fader served as a soldier in The United States Army for thirty-five years reaching the rank of colonel. Wes and Mary are enjoying the reward of their faith now that they have reached their eternal home. Only Heaven will reveal all the lives they touched throughout their ministry. Our family of evangelists and song-evangelists will miss them both. We extend our condolences to their wonderful family and friends. ★

Perdue's Pen

"The Promise of the Father"

Acts 1: 4-11

Nelson Perdue

There are four great days on the Christian Calendar. They are four pillars that support the structure of the Christian faith. (1) There is Christmas on which we commemorate the birth of Christ. (2) There is Good Friday on which Jesus gave his life as a ransom for our souls. (3) There is Easter morning on which we celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. (4) There is Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was poured out on the 120 in the upper room.

Without Pentecost, there would have been no fulfillment of the redemptive scheme. The ultimate goal of Bethlehem's manger and of Calvary's cross and of Easter's empty tomb was that God, the Holy Spirit, would come and dwell within the hearts of his children. All the previous days were validated by the Pentecostal effusion that followed the ascension of Christ to the right hand of the majesty on high. That which occurred on the inaugural day of Pentecost was a witness to the world that redemption was fulfilled in Christ.

It has been stated that Communism would never have survived if the Orthodox Church in Russia and likewise much of the church in Europe had not settled for three days and missed the fourth. The Orthodox Church never did apostatize doctrinally from the virgin birth, the deity of our Lord, the atoning death, or the bodily resurrection, but it had no Pentecost. Without Pentecost, Karl Marx saw the church as a lifeless, decadent religious system and it appeared to him to be the opiate of the people. The Church today is in danger of committing the same offense against God by rejecting the purpose and necessity of a personal Pentecost.

Pentecost is the greatest day between Christ's resurrection and his return. Those who saw and heard those disciples that were filled with the Holy Spirit were amazed at what was transpiring. They asked "What meaneth this?" Experientially, it meant that the disciples' hearts were purified by faith. Practically, it meant that they had received the power of the Spirit to give, to love, to serve, and to witness. Dispensationally, it meant that the Holy Spirit had come to administer and extend the cause of Christ. The Holy Spirit had come, as the Executive of the God-head, to promote what Christ had provided through his death and resurrection. What they were witnessing was normal Christianity.

J. B. Phillips in the preface of his book entitled, The Young Church in Action, gives us an insight into this Spirit-filled Church. He said this is the Church as it was meant to be. His words should be disturbing to all who refuse their personal Pentecost. The following is what he writes about the early Church:

"It is vigorous and flexible, for these are the days before it ever became fat and short of breath through prosperity, or muscle-bound by over-organization. These men did not make 'acts of faith,' they believed; they did not 'say their prayers,' they really prayed. They did not hold conferences on psychosomatic medicine, they simply healed the sick.....we have ruefully to admit that they were open on the God-ward side in a way that is almost unknown today. No one can read this book without being convinced that there is someone here at work besides mere human beings."

As his crucifixion drew near Jesus tried to explain to his disciples concerning the suffering and death that He was facing. Having put away their questions concerning the re-establishment of their ancestral throne of David, the emphasis shifted to the Comforter, (Holy Spirit), whom he would send to abide within them following his ascension back to the Father. He told them that the Holy Spirit would be the self-same Spirit that was the explanation of his life and ministry. The Spirit would come to reproduce Jesus' life in them. Jesus explained the various office work that the Holy Spirit would perform.

The Holy Spirit comes to reprove the world, to regenerate the sinner, and to refine the saint. In the fifth verse of my text Jesus reminds his disciples that there is a distinction between John's baptism and his own baptism. John's baptism of water unto repentance was outward on the skin and ceremonial. It was the outward sign of an inward work of grace. John's followers had turned and been converted to Christ. However, Jesus' baptism was exclusive to those who had been regenerated having already been quickened by the Holy Spirit according to John 20:22. His baptism, rather than being ceremonial, was experiential. It was an inward cleansing of the soul wrought by the Holy Spirit. This was evidenced by the cloven tongues "like as of fire" that fell on each of those 120 in the upper room on the day of Pentecost. The anointed message that Peter preached that day was so effectual that 3000 souls were converted and 5000 a short time later.

Once these disciples were proud, contentious, selfish and cowardly, but Pentecost had transformed their character. The purifying fullness of the Holy Spirit made the difference between timidity and joyous daring; spiritual weakness and power; fear and boldness. That is the difference Pentecost always makes. Jesus knew that it was imperative that they be filled with the Holy Spirit and insisted that they wait until for the Spirit to come. When the Holy Spirit came and purified their hearts and fully possessed their lives, as one noted, "They turned the world upside down." Pentecost fired their passion for souls, quickened their obedience, empowered their praying, ununctionized their preaching and singing, anointed their testimonies, and gave them a willingness to serve and even suffer for Jesus. The hymn writer captured the effects of Pentecost when he wrote these words that should be the cry of our hearts today.

*"Lord, send the old-time pow'r, the Pentecostal pow'r!
Thy floodgates of blessing on us throw open wide!
Lord, send the old-time pow'r, the Pentecostal pow'r,
That sinners be converted and thy name glorified!"*

Let us not demean the suffering of the Cross of Calvary or diminish the wonderful miracle of Jesus' resurrection by ignoring or rejecting our personal Pentecost. Without Easter there could never be a Pentecost but without Pentecost the purpose of the life, death and resurrection of our Lord would be thwarted. The purpose of the glorified Savior was so he could send to his children the Gift of the Spirit (John 7: 39). It is the ministry of the Holy Spirit to then purify and empower us for his service and by his Presence reproduce in us the Son of God and unite us in one Body. We are no longer isolated believers, but part of the Mystical Body of Christ. Jesus prayed, "Sanctify them through thy truth.....That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." (John 17: 17, 21) Let this be our prayer:

*"Refining fire, go through my heart,
Illuminate my soul;
Scatter thy light through every part,
And sanctify the whole."*

Fires of

The Revival at Waynesburg

"In early August 1801 as many as 20,000 to 30,000 people gathered at Cane Ridge Meeting House in Bourbon County, Kentucky, for a revival that became the defining event of the late 18th and early 19th century Western Great Revival period." (caneridge.org)

Waynesburg Christian Church is a part of "The Restoration Movement" that was born under the leadership of Barton W. Stone as a result of the Cane Ridge Revival. My wife, Gretchen, is the administrative assistant for the staff of Waynesburg Christian Church. One day while enjoying lunch with the pastor, his wife, and Gretchen, the pastor asked me, "What do you do when you go to a church?" I did my best to explain what I do in the context of revival. I spoke of the cleansing and empowering work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the Christian. The pastor said, "Our people need to hear that message!"

I was invited to speak at the men's breakfast several weeks later. Subsequently, I was invited to conduct revival services in February of 2013. The revival would begin a "50 Day Spiritual Adventure" for the church that would conclude on Easter Sunday.

I graduated from Atlanta Christian College, a Bible college in East Point, GA (now Point University located in West Point, GA), that is supported by Christian Churches of The Restoration

By Lane Loman

Movement. I knew there were differences in theology, but I saw the invitation as an opportunity to share the message of holiness. The church people, my home church (Columbus Community Fellowship Church of the Nazarene), and many friends were praying for the revival services.

The people came! The people listened! The people responded! In the words of one of the members, "The fire has come!"

The week after the revival, the praise and worship leader at Waynesburg Christian Church wrote the following article for the church newsletter. (The article has been edited for length.)

This past Sunday night may in fact be the first time that I really died. Pastor Loman preached at the revival, and somehow the message that I have received my entire life, and obviously never fully made sense, was incredibly clear. All of a sudden, anything I was confused about in life could be dissolved by referring to a simple truth: I had to die! The irony is delicious – I feel so revived and yet I am now dead, and it has been one of the most freeing, glorious, and in fact, terrifying ordeals of my life. I can remember sitting in that pew, having heard the message that I had to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and put Him on the throne of my life, and just thinking about all the ways I really hadn't died. I was still self-centered...I couldn't figure out why I wasn't as close to God as I wanted to be despite the fact that I may very well have been saved. I still hadn't gotten off the throne. And, in many ways, just like I was doing in the pew that night, the lingering remnants of carnality were still clinging to me for dear life. Satan whispers, "You can't give up EVERYTHING to Jesus." The weirdest thing happened in that moment. I knew I should go forward and surrender to Jesus, and exchange my life for His. But, I knew if I did, I couldn't go back without full knowledge of what was expected of me. Before, it was almost as if I didn't fully understand what it meant to surrender so I could still keep some parts for myself and plead ignorance. But now that it was so perfectly clear as it never was before, I knew it was either dive in or completely and deliberately ignore God and the sacrifice Jesus made for me. I had no excuse anymore. So the question became, "Do I want to follow God or not?" It was simple. So, after pausing for a few long moments, desperately fighting the tempter in my ear, I went forward and died!

Gretchen and I had dinner with Matt (the author of the article) and his wife after the revival. During the meal, his wife, Jenna, said, "As we go through the day, I often look at Matt and ask, "Are you still dead?"

What a joy to know that the message of holiness is still making a difference. Even in churches that, historically, have not been exposed to its liberating truths. ★

Norman,

I'm deeply grateful to you for your ministry at CCN during the days of revival services. Your messages & spirit ministered to me personally and I know many in our church family were moved, edified & convicted by the Lord's Word through you. Thank you for your preparation & sensitive delivery. God has gifted you to preach the truth in a way that pulls no punches, yet comes across in a loving tone that allows the Spirit to work without manipulation or pressure. Our church is in a better place after these days of seeking God together and His faithful ministry through his evangelist.

Rick Power
Senior Pastor

EDUCATION THAT IGNITES EVANGELISTIC PASSION & SKILL

NBC LITERALLY SAVED MY LIFE!

I don't know where I would be today if I hadn't made the commitment to prepare for full-time evangelistic ministry on campus at the Bible College. I can remember receiving the phone call from Dr. Dwight Neuenschwander informing me that I was accepted to the school. After reading my personal testimony, he told me,

"Gary, isn't it great? God has the greatest salvage company in the world!"

And he was absolutely right. (Isaiah 61) "The Spirit of the Lord is on me ... to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes."
