Be Still and Know

Our talking reinforces or clarifies what we already know. Our listening enables us to hear another person's thoughts, feel their presence and experience that person. So it is with praying! To create the art of being still and listening is to come to know our Heavenly Father. It fosters a deep inner knowing beyond words. It gives us the union with God for which we hunger. It gives us all the resources we need to meet life!

~ H.L. Smith

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth." Psalms 46:10
